THE RAINBOW 1950

Presenting

The 1950

FOREWORD

This, the twenty-second volume to bear the name RAINBOW, is, like its predecessors, a book of pictures.

The pictures are of our building, our schoolmates, and our teachers—familiar to us for some time past. They show the way the camera caught us — A. D. 1950!

But, times change and memories fade.

Rainbow

FOREWORD

We who made this book dare to hope that some day it will be far more than a mere book of pictures. We hope that the turning of its pages will fan a spark of dim remembrance into a pleasant glow of recollection, and that school days may, if desired, come again to life.

Last Will and Testament

Class of 1950

We, June Douglas and Peggy Martin, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave—for Miss Bailie's benefit.

We, Miriam Siskin and Suzanne Levine, do hereby bequeath to two deserving members of the next freshman class of Junior College our unparalleled ability to wholeheartedly disagree with the class, the texts, the teachers, the school and each other.

I, Aubrey C. Rhodes, do hereby leave to any J. C. A. boy the opportunity to shatter my record of 10 years at A. R. C. and J. C. A.

I, Ruth Mae Joe, do hereby will and bequeath my desk in shorthand class to Virginia Mae Joe so that she may feel free to draw all the pictures on it she wants to.

I, Warren Blanchard, leave to Danny Voss my pet pigeon, Caroline, and one box of birdseed.

We, Anne Jamison and Joyce Martin, do will and bequeath to any two deserving freshmen our Clemson "3's" and hope they will enjoy them as much as we do.

I, Mary Thomas, will to the next Zeta Rho President the ability to keep all the girls in a continuous uproar.

I, Adelle Warren, will to Caroline McGahee my soft voice.

I, Audrey Bailey, do will and bequeath my ability to sleep through class to any energetic freshman.

I, Dot Henderson, will to Katherine Walters my ability to play a whole basketball game.

I, Libby Jones, leave to Martha Cawley my ability to get along with Mrs. Hall.

I, Jack Cooper, will to Miss Bailie my radiant personality in hopes that it will do some good. I also leave my worldly wealth of 2c to start a fund for furthering athletics in J. C. A.

I, Billie Gardner, do will and bequeath to any freshman my car, Betsy. There is always room for one more.

I, Jerry Saul, will to any "jolly" English History "blighter" my ability to read Mr. Huffman's mind (also my old tests).

We, the three little G's, (Gall way, Gitter, and Greenblatt) leave every one of our extra inches to any good basketball player in hope that it will not go to his head.

I, Tom Murphy, leave to Jimmy Stewart my ability to spend half the day cleaning the chewing gum off my false teeth.

I, Mary Arnett, will to Joan Stevenson my ability to make 50 points in one basketball game.

Class Prophecy of the Junior College Class of 1950

TIME: 1975

PLACE: A SPACE SHIP GOING TO MARS

"All aboard that's going aboard, we're ready to take off!" — Whish! "Hm, left on time. When that pilot starts, he really goes, doesn't he?" said Frankie, settling back in her seat. "Yep," drawled James C., "That comes from playing on a Junior College basketball team. Billy W., remember? When he, Ed, William R., Jack C. and Jerry got started, you just couldn't stop 'em. Why, they had to disband their professional team after they beat every other team in the U. S. and a few foreign teams on the side just for fun." "My, my," sighed Frankie, "You take me back to my younger days". She was thinking of her years on the JCA girls' team. "Speaking of basketball, I heard that Mary Arnett dyed her hair and played for the Redheads for a long time. Dot would have too, but she just couldn't resist becoming a doctor's wife. Now she, Billie Goldman, Marge Avery, and Anne Hayes have formed a JCA alumni bridge club. Mary Ann Lange plays with them occasionally, but Bill Jr. and the other little Langes keep her pretty busy."

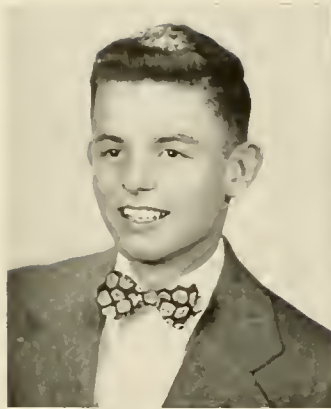

"Say," asked Warren, who was going to Mars to establish a chain of drugstores, "what ever became of June and Peggy?" "Oh, they have been indispensable aides in the JCA library for 25 years," answered B. J. Annis. She was transporting her family and an equal amount of degrees to Mars where she was to become a leading psychologist. "I didn't realize, until you started reminiscing, just how many of our contemporaries went on to become famous people," mused Eloise. She and Frankie were traveling to Mars to improve the social situation there. "Take Bernard, for instance. His success as a dentist prevented him from competing with Ray L. and Jamie for the title of Mr. America, but it certainly gave him a wonderful chair-side manner. "He pulls teeth like nobody else." She smiled, displaying a toothless grin. "I just can't resist him!" Cook chimed in, "Then there is Betty Jean Pavlova, prima ballerina of the Ballet Russe, Isaac Jolles, leading lawyer of the Augusta Bar Association, and Sonny Einstein, who, by the way, finally married Pat after following her all over Asia. Billy Phinizy, I hear, is the Republican candidate for president. His ability as a debater which was developed in American History, coupled with the excellent little essays written for him by Peel, won him that position. Karl S. and Miriam certainly have made names for themselves as the leading music and drama critics, respectively, in New York. Why, Miriam was even asked to join l'Academie Francaise, but the stage called her."

"With her varied career and experience, she should become the first woman president in a few years," said Adelle, who intended to spread the popularity of organ music on Mars while James conducted his missionary work. "Of course, she may have trouble swinging the women who are supporting Bill Maden. After his long reign as sweetheart of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Women, his popularity knows no bounds." "Gee," sighed Eloise, "I hope they have the latest Walt Disney comedies on Mars. Joe B. just thrills me impersonating Mickey Mouse. I think he does a much better job than those old-fashioned cartoons did. Too bad he and Ronald had to part when the latter joined the staff of Johns Hopkins. Did you see the Barter Players when they came to Augusta last? Well, Bob Puder really outdid himself as Scaramouche."

As the ship approached Mars, Warren summed up the reminiscing. "Although Katherine M. went on to become national president of Phi Beta Kappa and was instrumental in the development of the nitrogen bomb, others like Ann W., who became the idol of Augusta's third grade students, were content to settle down. Too bad, though, that Robert Y. won't give up his position as Augusta's most eligible bachelor and follow the example of Morris and Ann." "I hope David meets me at the airport," worried Suzanne, looking at her watch. "This business of being a doctor's wife, and running a chain of newspapers too, leaves me absolutely no time at all to read!"

Last Will and Testament of Class of 1950

We the class of 1950 hereby bequeath to our fortunate underclassmen our possessions, titles and reputations, and hope that someday they, too, will be able to put them to as good advantage as we have done.

1. Richard Weathers again will attempt to leave his title of "Wee Wee" to Jack Hall.
2. Righton Robertson leaves part of his brain to Nath Hayes.
3. Fred Chance leaves his speed on the gridiron to Richard Barrow.
4. Jimmy Penn leaves his mooching ability to Chick James.
5. Jimmy O'Daniel leaves his football ability to Everett Kugler.
6. Ed Douglas leaves his uniform to Leedham and hopes it will fit.
7. Jim "Ernie" Pyle leaves his track ability to Angus Wilson.
8. Jimmy Stewart leaves his half-way love affair to Lansing "lover boy" Lee.
9. Howard Timmerman and Jimmy Pyle leave their office of President and Chaplain in the Cadet Hi-Y to Jack Hall and W. C. Cook.
10. Perry McLean leaves his position of colonel to Walter Ford.
11. Tommy Herndon bequeaths his "way with the women" to Tom Goodwin.
12. Tommy Sanders bequeaths his uniform pants to Ray Walle in hope that someday he may be able to wear them.
13. To Ronald (all right, you guys) Hobson, Joel Cohen leaves his basketball ability.
14. Ronald Jester leaves his football ability to Charles "fat-boy" Wall.
15. To Nathaniel Greenblatt, Preston Leonard leaves his ability to get along with Mr. A. L. Williams.
16. To George Rollins, Billy Evans leaves his "good hair".
17. Howard Timmerman leaves to Richard Hixon his mathematics ability in hopes that he may someday pass Math 22.
18. Frank Babbitt leaves his good looks to Earl Babbitt in hopes that someday he may look as good.
19. To Joe Reynolds, Wade Saxon leaves his style of saying, "Look out!"
20. Harry Sherman leaves to Ed Brandon his cute curly hair.
21. Dink Hensley leaves his peculiar laugh to Bob Jump.
22. Buster Pelton leaves his height and back board ability to Prentice Peabody.
23. Walter Scott leaves

Class Prophecy

TIME: 1962½

PLACE: Bowery in New York

As the sun comes up over the buildings, we approach the island of Manhattan. In the distance, we hear "The Call of the Dodo Bird", played by Willie Woo and his Wowell Wobblers. As we look down the street, we see J. R. Robinson, you remember the promising young inventor, well, he was trying to invent a potatoless potato-masher, and was overtaken by temptation, poor fellow. Well, look who's with him, "Red" Rowe, the boy who came to the Bowery to forget his troubles after his lover, Doris, eloped with "P. H." Sherman. Let's listen.

"What was that boy's name? Golf bags? Paper bags? Naw, that's right, "Money Bags."

"A twenty mile per hour gale blew him away when he was mining for gold in Mexico."

"What about William 'Rockefeller' Maxwell, Red?"

"I actually saw him riding around in a Ford, must not have been his. I saw where Gary Bostick finally married Austin Gilliland. It's about time. They have been madly in love since the first year of high school. What about Penn and Patrick?"

"They had to join the French Foreign Legion, poor fellows. Say, Joseph, you remember Dolie Sanders, the guy voted most likely to get hit by a flying saucer? He's washing windows for the Empire State Building, the only man in the country who can wash all of the windows without leaving the ground."

"Say, did you know that Gene Kelly is making a hand carved tomb stone for "Horse Doctor" Billy Philpot because Billy killed his best mule? And, what about 'Voice' Pyle?"

"He's call boy at the Wadorf-Astoria and Cadet Coonel McLean has been reduced in rank—he's merely the captain of the bell hops!"

"The boy with all the girls at his feet, "Romeo" Boatwright, has married the Queen of England, and guess who's trying to take her away from him? Yes, "Huncho" Havron."

"I know you've heard about the big fight tonight. Morris Scott and Valdee Cooper are boxing for the world championship. Red, did you know that Bobby Huntley was trying to take my sleeping place in the doorway of Henry's Oasis? He always was one step behind me."

"You remember 'Choo Choo' Jester, the boy who kept his football shoes shined? Well, he's the Chattanooga shoe shine boy now. I saw old "Web" Cason the other day, and he's laughing on Inner Sanctum. Ain't that a scream?"

"You remember how 'B.O.' Jarrett used to bite his finger nails? Well, he ain't got no fingers left. They must have tasted pretty good to him. Nobody has heard from Billy Berry or Clarence Barinowski since they tried swimming the English Channel. They must have been told that there was a mermaid out there."

"Well, well, Calvin Gore and Omer Hensley finally made it. They are mechanics on Fonty Flock's model midget racers. Do you remember how Herbert Joe used to love to bowl? Well, he finally made a profession out of it and is now setting up pins."

"Clayton Heath has been looking for a good race ever since high school. Well, he finally found one. He's racing with the moon. Say, look over there across the street. There's Kenneth Davis and Walter Cliatt holding hands. They always were right sweet on each other."

"Guess what, Joseph! I got a letter from my mother-in-law down in Augusta the other day and she said that Frank McDaniels is modeling clothes at F. J. Luke's. Guess he has about the best job in the South now. Rogers Feese and Jimmy Harrison are selling corn dogs at the Paramount studios now. I always did think they would go to Hollywood."

"How about 'Wee Wee' Weathers?"

"He's coaching the tiddley winks team at old A.R.C. now. He's even got girls on the team. 'Nose' Hardaway tried to get a job on television, but he was turned down because they would have had to build a new screen, for his nose. My, my, Red, that George Sheftall really is successful. You know, he's drawing the holes that Fearless Fosdick shoots in people's heads."

"The last I saw of Charles Adkins, he was asleep on the stage at graduation and somebody said he hasn't woke up yet. Yes, 'Chick' James finally made something in football. For the past six years, he has been the water boy for the Rockets. I'm mighty proud of that boy."

"You know, I've been wondering about Jimmy Stewart. I don't believe he'll ever pass M.S.&T. as long as G. B. V. is down there."

"They tell me that Joel Cohen took over Wilinsky's Bargain House not long ago. He always did want that business."

"Say, Red, you remember how Dan Hall used to like to travel? Well, he and Tom Balk are travelling now. Their motto is, 'Be a bum and see the world.'"

"I heard that Johnny Jefferson Jones, Jr., is a big time gangster and he runs the Augusta Hotel as a front. What 'cha think about that?"

"Well, Red, got to go now. A hys sin ia some time."

They went their ways down the chill Manhattan canyons, and we'll have to wait until they get together again for more of the low-down on the A.R.C. Class of 1950.

The Sheridan Sabre

The Richard B. Sheridan Memorial Sabre is an award made annually by the Reserve Officers Association to the Cadet Officer of the ROTC Unit who is judged to be the best soldier. The sabre is awarded in memory of Richard Brinsley Sheridan, honor graduate of the Academy who lost his life in the football uniform of West Point.

In order for a cadet to win this award, he must not only be an outstanding officer but also a capable and versatile student. Although there are no rigid requirements, custom has been established that the recipient of this award be a conscientious student, a proficient athlete, and a leader in class activities. The most conspicuous similarity of the boys who have won this award is their character. Without exception these students have been first and foremost gentlemen. Thus the Sheridan Sabre has come to be the most coveted award that any Academy student can receive.

AWARD FOR 1949 — MAJOR HERMAN J. OELLERICH.

THE VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS SABRE

This sabre is awarded to the member of the Junior Class who distinguishes himself as a leader on the drill field as well as an able student in MS&T. The award is made annually by the Post No. 3200 Veterans of Foreign Wars.

AWARD FOR 1949 — CAPTAIN PERRY G. McLEAN.

THE AMERICAN LEGION SABRE

The American Legion Sabre is awarded each year to the commander of the company that has won the most parades during the school year. The Sabre is given by Post No. 63, American Legion.

1949 FOOTBALL

Richmond opened the '49 football season on Sept. 16, against the strong P. C. Freshmen. Despite the fact that all the cadets put in their best playing, P. C. walked away with an easy 26-0 victory.

The following week the cadets journeyed to Brunswick only to be turned back by a score of 40-0, by the G. I. A. A. champs, Glynn Academy.

The next week, Richmond played host to Bass High of Atlanta. Early in the third period Bilbo Chance heaved a long pass to Jimmy Penn, who hauled it in to set up a possible touchdown. Continuous passing and good running brought the ball to the 3-yard stripe, where Chick James carried it over for the only score in the ball game. The final score: Richmond 6, Bass 0.

For the next game the Cadets lost a heartbreaker to Jordan High of Columbus. Richmond scored first when Linwood James carried the ball around his own left end for 12 yards, and a touchdown. The extra point was no good. Then in the last minutes of the first half Jordan scored, but failed to connect for the extra point, and at the half the score was knotted at 6-6. Richmond opened up for a sustained drive of 86 yards, with Bilbo Chance carrying the ball the last nine yards for the score. Chance's pass to Penn was incomplete and Jordan, scoring in the third quarter and making the extra point, topped the Cadets 13-12.

The next week Richmond traveled to Savannah to meet the Benedictine Cadets, who took over in the first half and racked up 22 points to down Richmond 22-0.

On Oct. 28, the Lanier Poets came to Augusta to show their superiority over the Cadets by scoring a 26-7 victory. The only Richmond score was in the third period when Chick James carried the ball over from the 2-yard line.

The following week Richmond took to the road again to meet Smith High of Atlanta. This game was dedicated to "Wee Wee" Weathers, who received a broken leg after the Glynn game. Richmond fumbled three times during the first half. Two of these fumbles cost them touchdowns and at the half, Smith led by a score of 19-0. Richmond scored twice in the third quarter, once when Preston Leonard went over from the eleven yard line, and again when Eddie Eidson recovered a fumble and Rodgers Feese broke off tackle in the first play for a 50 yard tally. Chance kicked both extra points, but the game ended with Smith out front 33-14.

The next week end, the Richmond squad was outscored 25-7 by the strong Savannah High team. The only score for Richmond came in the third quarter when Hoover Lanier broke into the clear and carried the ball for 75 yards to pay dirt.

On the Friday before Thanksgiving, Richmond fell to defeat once more when they met Commercial High of Savannah. Ludy Glisson returned to the line-up after breaking his arm before the season began, but, despite the good play ing of the Richmond squad, they were downed by 12-0.

On Turkey Day, Richmond upheld the tradition of beating the Shamrocks of Catholic High by a score of 28-0. Richmond's first score came in the second period on a long pass from Chance to Lanier. In the third quarter Richmond took over the game with Ed Parrish going over from the three yard line. Lanier scored his second T.D. of the day, and Rodgers Feese broke off for a 35 yard score. Bilbo Chance kicked four out of four extra points. Linwood James and Bobby Eubanks were standouts on defense for the Academy.

A. R. C. Basketball

The Richmond Academy cagers opened the 1950 basketball season January 2 against the Alumni. The score was 25 to 23 for A. R. C.

Five games were dropped before Richmond came back to win over Glynn 47 to 37, B. C. H. S. 34 to 33, and Greenwood, 48 to 40. Greenwood was beaten again, and there was a 50 to 47 victory over Commercial.

For the first time since Catholic High started against Richmond, the Shamrocks downed an A-Varsity team. The score in this game was 33 to 31.

But, all in all, it was a good time for everyone, and each man on the A. R. C. squad showed good sportsmanship. Richard (Pee Wee) Weathers made honors by receiving second place on the All-Regional Team. Also, he received an award from Commercial High of Savannah for good sportsmanship. Jimmy O'Daniel made the All-Tournament Team. The season closed with six wins and fourteen losses, as the scoreboard shows.

The J. C. A. girls began the season with 14 members, but were slightly handicapped by the end of the season with the loss of 4 players. Those at present on the team are: Joan Stevenson, Ann Whatley, Mary Arnett, Billie Gardner, Katherine Walters, Frankie Walton, Dorothy Henderson, Bettyjane Bartlett, and Caroline McGahee. The girls played in both the "Y" league and the City league. They were in third place in the "Y" league.

Academy and Junior College some of which must be applied for in the near future.

These scholarships are awarded for use in a number of the best schools and universities in the country.

New Report Cards Bring Mixed Re-actions

For the first time in many years beyond the memory of students in the school, Academics students find home a different type of record this month.

Reactions on the part of both students and teachers were mixed. Some were pleased with the additional information provided — others were not. Particularly those students who already carried notions about the need for little study habits showed lower attention in class and other suggestions for
